

DCH Radiography Program
2009 - 2011 Textbook List
Updated: 8/2009

It is your responsibility to ensure that you purchase and have the appropriate text/s available prior to the beginning of each quarter. You may purchase new or used, unless otherwise specified, through any of the sources listed at the end of this book list. This list is not all inclusive. Text requirements are subject to change due to edition, course or curriculum changes.

In addition to the following textbooks, you will also need the usual school supplies: notebooks, paper, etc. and an inexpensive calculator with a square root function.

The books that are in green can be purchased used.
